SMALL CHANGE.

See non-resident notice and sheriff's sale elsewhere in this paper.

It is rumored that Jay Gould will scoop the Mobile and Ohio road.

A mule dropped dead on Main street yesterday. We did not learn who he belonged to, nor what was the

A party of ladies and gentlemen returning from Double Springs campmeeting got well soaked in the rain last Tuesday.

A young man named Carter was for misbehavior at the Shiloh camp meeting. He was bound over for trial at circuit court.

Ground has been broken for the new Cumberland Presbyterian church, on Main street, and the work will be vigorously pushed. The town will be an ornament to the town, when finished.

A prominent liquor drummer says there is less whiskey sold in Gibson county now than was sold in either Trenton, Humboldt or Milan three years ago. This looks like prohibition was getting in some good work in these parts.

Mr. H. A. Fields last Thursday brought us another lot of very fine fruit. One of the pears weighed 111 ounces and measured 101 inches in circumference. A peach weighed 10 ounces and measured 101 inches around. Mr. Fields goes head again

The democratic congressional convention, when it meets here on the 7th prox., should speak out vigorously against the pension steal. One hundred millions of dollars a year is a little too big a loot. Let all the democratic congressional conventions condemn it and require their candidates to pledge themselves for a strict investigation.

The West Tennessee Self Endowment Association is a new candidate for public favor recently started here. Some of our best citizens are its officers, viz: A. Jordan, President, Dr. Henderson, Vice President, G. W. Martin, Secretary, E. A. Collins, Treasurer, and B D. Mills, General Manager. The Exchange wishes them much prosperity.

The candidates for congress spoke here last Saturday to a large and attentive audience. We were unable to hear them, but learn that all made vigorous, able speeches, eliciting frequent cheers. All declared in favor of Bate for Governor. From what we could learn of the drift of sentiment, Cooper is first choice here, with Pierce enthusiastically second choice.

The National Dowry Association has just started into business, with its headquarters in Milan. This company has two classess. Class 1, propos es to pay two, four and six dollars per day, allowing parties to marry at any time. Class 2 proposes to pay $150, $300 and $450 in three months. May or S. H. Hale is President, John Shepherd, Vice President, T. E. Sharp, Secretary, W. A. Wade, Treasurer, and W. M. McCall, Legal Adviser. The Quarterly Review of the M. E. Church, South, for July, has reached us, and is an exceedingly interesting number. This issue was finished up by Dr. A. B. Stark, President of Russellville Female College. He took up the unfinished work of the late editor, Dr. Summers, and carried it out as nearly as possible as was intended by him. Dr. J. W. Hinton, the new editor, will get out the next issue, and the readers may gain. expect no falling off in its literature.

PERSONAL.

Miss Jennie Harris, of Humboldt, visited friends here this week.

Mrs. Emma Smith, of Cairo, has been visiting her father's family here this week.

W. W. Wadley, President of the Georgia Central railroad, dropped dead in Saratoga Thursday evening.

Elder John R. Farrow, of Alamo, will preach at Odd Fellows' Hall on the third Sunday night of this month. Congressman Simonton has our thanks for Vols. 2, 3 and 4 of "War tried before Esquire Hurt last week of the Rebellion." If he will send us the first volume now, we will be more thankful.

Rev. F. P. Flaniken has returned from an extended trip to Texas and has been spending several days with his flock here. He will occupy his pulpit to-morrow.

Mr. E. A. Collins has resigned the position of president and treasurer of the Mutual Aid Association and the headquarters of the society has been moved back to Brownsville. Mr. G. C. Smith, of that town, have been elected to take his place. See change of advertisement in this paper.

The following faculty have been elected for Milan College: John Shepherd, principal, with Mrs. Jennie Hutcherson, Mrs. Blanche Ware and Miss Molie House teachers. All are worthy and competent, and we expect to see a full attendance this fall. We suppose the school will open early in September.

Mrs. Eliza, wife of J. B. Foster, Esq., in the first district, died on Thursday of last week. She leaves five small children. Mrs. Foster was one of the purest christian women in the county, and was loved by a large circle of relatives and friends. Over five hundred people attended her burial—the largest number ever seen at a funeral in that neighborhood.

Fell in a Well.

Charlie, a little son of Henry Manuel, the barber, while drawing water at the well on Main street last Tuesday, slipped and fell headlong into it, falling about forty-five feet, He had not more than touched bottom before he raised a yell for help, which was quickly rendered by the people on the street. On being drawn up he was found to be only slightly bruised, but terribly scared. His escape was indeed narrow, and will probably make him more careful in future.

Amount of Wheat Threshed.

Some time since, we asked the threshermen around Milan to give us reports. Some have done so-others

Taylor & Hale threshed 2500 bushels from 250 acres. Largest yield, 17 per acre; raised by J. T. Duke. Quality, No. 2.

W. A. McLean threshed 4304 from 490 acres. Largest yield 211 per acre; raised by Wm. Patrick. Quality, No. 3.

Harris & Gilbert threshed 4311 from 419 acres. Largest yield 19 9-13 per acre; raised by Joe Claybrook. Quality. No. 2.

Wm. Thorne & Co. threshed 6200; A. P. Phillips & Co, 3000; Powell & Co. 6000; Cooper & Co. 5000; Baird & Swindle, 5000.

Total threshed, as reported to us, 36,315 bushels.

Forced Sale of Dry Goods.

The remnant of the A. C. Hamilton stock of goods, etc., will be sold within the next fifteen days. Will sell all in bulk. Apply to the undersigned immediately if you want a bar-E. A. COLLINS, Trustee.

Polities in Trenton.

A large crowd ovated Ex-Governor Marks in Trenton last Monday. There must have been near two thousand people on the ground, a majority of whom listened to a two hours speech with marked attention. We have not space to give even a synopsis of his speech; but, judging by the frequent cheers, it pleased the crowd. He proved by the records that the Brownlow legislature were the first repudiationists in Tennessee, and said the republicans had no right to charge repudiation on democrats.

Mr. Beasley ran a side show during Gov. Marks' speech, with the evident intention of trying to draw of his crowd. He was listened to by a mixed crowd of one or two hundred people. No enthusiasm was manifested. Both gentlemen spoke in the court house yard.

Judging by the evidence before us on that day, neither Beasley nor Fussell will get a respectable vote in this county. Five hundred, we think, will much more than cover the vote of the two combined.

The high and low tax county democratic committees met and agreed to issue a joint call for a county convention in Trenton on the first Monday in Septembet, to appoint delegates to the congressional convention here on the 7th prox., and to re-organize the party, etc. Chairman Burnett resigned his office of chairman of the low tax committee and Mr. John
